STORY OF HOPE

Due to unforeseen circumstances, Caroline was raising her two grandchildren on her own. Before taking in her grandkids, who she loved very much, Caroline had already been struggling and relying on The Salvation Army of Muncie's food pantry monthly.

Christmas was quickly approaching and Caroline wanted to make sure she could give her grandchildren some gifts to help them feel special during a crazy year. Since she was already familiar with The Salvation Army, Caroline turned to them first as she looked for Christmas assistance. Thanks to a partnership with Walmart and generous donors in Delaware County, the corps had an abundance of toys to give to families in need.

Caroline was so thankful when she received all the presents for her grandkids from The Salvation Army. She got emotional and even came back later to say thank you repeatedly.

Caroline is now looking to adopt her grandchildren, and The Salvation Army of Muncie is doing everything they can to support her on this journey.
