STORY OF HOPE

Daniel had a dream of becoming a homeowner so he could provide a safe, steady, and comforting home for his children. He was working to rebuild his credit, manage his finances carefully, and prepare for homeownership. He said, "It was overwhelming at times, and there were moments when I questioned if it would even be possible."

That is when he turned to The Salvation Army of New Albany where he met his case worker Alecha who introduced him to the Pathway of Hope (POH) Program. Daniel diligently worked through the POH program where he learned even more about managing his finances and where he got the consistent encouragement he needed to keep going.

"Alecha stayed in touch, followed up on every detail, and made sure I had the resources and tools I needed to succeed," he expressed in gratitude. Through POH and compassionate and dedicated case work, Daniel is now on the verge of closing on his new home. It's not just about buying a house, it's about creating a safe, stable place where his kids can build lasting memories and thrive.
