STORY OF HOPE

In February, a 62-year-old woman came to The Salvation Army of Terre Haute in tears. After spending most of her life working as a nurse, she suddenly lost her job due to serious health issues. For the first time in 13 years, she was unable to pay her rent — a fear that weighed heavily on her. She had never missed a payment, and the thought of losing her home was overwhelming.

As she shared her story, the case worker listened with compassion and care. A call to her landlord confirmed everything she said: she had been a reliable tenant, she was doing everything she could, and she truly had nowhere else to turn.

Because of the generosity of our donors, The Salvation Army was able to pay her rent for March. That support provided more than shelter — it gave her breathing room, dignity, and a moment of hope in the middle of a crisis.

She contacted The Salvation Army again, now with a steadier voice, knowing she was not facing this journey alone. The case worker already reached out to partner organizations to help her continue finding stability.

Your support made this possible.

Your compassion protected a vulnerable neighbor from losing her home.

Your generosity allowed someone who once cared for others to finally receive care herself.
